DEDICATION

To my husband

WALTER E. SCOTT

Who has loyally helped me in every way in the preparation of this history; cheerfully struggling through briars and brambles in old neglected cemeteries, in search of inscriptions on grave-stones, and with equal cheerfulness has helped me search court houses and other sources of records, this book is affectionately inscribed.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I wish to thank all of you who so patiently and promptly answered my questionnaires and letters of query. Everyone has been so kind and helpful to me that there is a long list of relatives whom I wish to thank.

I am deeply indebted to the late Freeman Cecil, without whose help I could not have found Emily Bliss Munson's family. Also, to the late Mrs. George Munson Loughridge, who sent me much of the information given on the Munson family.

I wish to thank Mr. Allen Curran, Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Smith Thomas, Pleasant Hill, Mo., and Rev. Will Bliss, Lincoln, Nebr., all of whom collected data on the Ralph L. Bliss family.

I wish to thank Mrs. Arthur Bohling, Davenport, Nebr., Mrs. Mary T. Harritt, Watonga, Okla., Mrs. Tessa Royce, Santa Cruz, Calif., Mrs. Fern Sylvester, Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Lyle Yarborough, Pawhuska, Okla., all of whom collected data on the Mary Bliss Tipton family.

Mr. Tipton Hochstetler, Coal City, Ind., searched cemeteries and did extensive research on the Mary Bliss Tipton family in Indiana, for which I am very grateful.

I am particularly indebted to Mrs. Atha Crockett, Kingston, Mo., and Mrs. Lucy Lukens Aubley, Medicine Lodge, Kansas, both of whom gave so generously of their time to assist me in the compilation of this history. Mrs. Crockett and her niece, Miss Hazel McCray, collected and compiled the complete data on the descendants of John Quincy Adams Bliss, in the West.

Mrs. Aubley collected all the data on the Keziah Louisa (Bliss) Lukens family in the West, and she had rewritten it in an understandable form before she transmitted it to me.

The Western Reserve Historical Library, The Cleveland Public Library, the Cleveland Medical Library, the Iowa State Department of History and Archives, and the Grand Lodge, Order of Railway Conductors, all gave me valued assistance.

I wish to thank Mrs. Smith Thomas, Pleasant Hill, Mo., for the picture of Ralph L. Bliss.

Mrs. Olive Whitehead, Nashville, Tenn., for the picture of Sarah Bliss Lukens.

Mrs. Nora Miller, Hymera, Ind., for the picture of Sylvester Tipton, which I am using, since there is no picture of Mary Bliss Tipton in existence.

I am indebted to Mr. Frank Hoover, Frazesburg, Ohio, for the picture of George Washington Bliss and his son, George Haskins Bliss, which was taken after the son's death.

Mrs. Atha Crockett, Kingston, Mo., furnished the picture of John Quincy Adams Bliss.

Mrs. Lucy Lukens Aubley, Medicine Lodge, Kas., sent the picture of Nathaniel H. Lukens. There is no picture of Keziah Louisa (Bliss) Lukens in existence. Mrs. Aubley regretted that this is not a "dressed up" picture, since it was taken at the County Fair in Missouri, where he was exhibiting some fine horses. This is the only picture they have of him.

I wish to thank Mr. Earl White, Tippecanoe, R.F.D., Ohio, for the picture of Jane Bliss Cecil.

I am indebted to Mr. Clinton Liber, Canton, Ohio, for the picture of the Bliss Homestead.

I also wish to thank my sons Wayne and Glenn Scott who made the copies of all these pictures.

FOREWORD

Nearly every individual gives some thought to his ancestors. Particularly, as we grow older, the thought comes to us, what kind of ancestors had we? From whence did they come? What was their station in life? In what way am I related to this person, or that person?

It was to answer these questions and many more, that in 1938 I started to collect data on the Bliss family. First as a hobby; second to give my children some knowledge of their ancestry.

When I started this history I could find only one man who had ever heard of Emily Bliss Munson. And, strange as it may seem, none of our older relatives here in Ohio had ever heard of Mary Bliss Tipton.

My search for them started with some very meager records at the Harrison County Court House, and after seven years of searching for Mary Bliss Tipton and Sylvester, her husband, I found I had been trailing the wrong Sylvester Tipton. Therefore, I had to go back to the beginning and start again, this time with success.

Each bit of information further stimulated my interest, until I determined to make a zealous effort to collect and compile the complete history of the descendants of Zadock and Keziah (Haskins) Bliss.

It has required a great deal of research, a vast amount of correspondence; much examination of historical books and documents. We have made many trips for the purpose of examining cemeteries, court records, newspaper files and to interview individuals.

I am sorry it was not started earlier while our grandparents were living. They could have told us so many interesting experiences of their lives in early days.

They seem to have left few records and I have found no old letters or diaries, recounting their experiences. This is our loss, however to the best of my ability I have collected an item here, a fragment elsewhere, until at last after many months devoted to it, I have succeeded in collecting almost a complete record. There are a few names missing, as you will notice. Some could not be located. The family is widely scattered and in some instances, left no clues behind them as to their present whereabouts.

A few and I am happy to say, a very few did not co-operate and did not return their questionnaires. I have included only such material as has been sent to me, by members of the family, and which I am authorized to use. The names and dates in this record are correct, as far as I have been able to verify them. It is possible that there are errors, and if so, I regret them.

However, this book is for the purpose of preserving records which otherwise would be lost.

I have enjoyed collecting this history and if it serves to bring us to a greater understanding of these family "ties that bind" its mission will have been fulfilled.

—BURKE

The history of the Bliss family, preceding Zadock Bliss, Jr., is already well set down in the book "The Bliss family in America" compiled by John Homer Bliss and published in 1881.

Since I believe you will find it interesting, I will give a very brief account of the direct line of descent.

The first Bliss in our line, of whom there is any record, is Thomas Bliss, who was born about 1550 and died in England.

There is record of four children:

Jonathan; Thomas; Elizabeth; and George.

The Bliss family were Puritans, and as such were persecuted by Civil and Religious Authorities. It was to escape this persecution that the brothers Thomas and George emigrated to America. Thomas, a son of Jonathan, came to America at a later date.

First generation in America:

(1) Thomas Bliss, born in England about 1585; married Margaret (There is doubt about her maiden name, but it is believed to be Lawrence) They came to America in 1635 and settled in Massachusetts. Later they removed to Connecticut.

They were the parents of ten children: Ann, Mary, Thomas, (2) Nathaniel, Lawrence, Samuel, Sarah, Elizabeth, Hannah and John.

Mary Bliss (above) was married to Joseph Parsons, one of the prominent men of Northampton, Mass. While living in Northampton, Mary Bliss Parsons was accused of practicing witchcraft. She was imprisoned and sent to Boston for trial, but was acquitted. A complete account of her trial may be found in the book "Witchcraft in New England" by Samuel G. Drake, who was a direct descendent of Mary Bliss Parsons. Her sixth child, Ebenezer, was the first white child born in Northampton, Mass., and he was killed while fighting the Indians in King Phillip's War.

Second generation in America:

(2) Nathaniel Bliss (birthdate unknown, d. Nov. 8, 1654; Married, Nov. 20, 1646 to Catherine Chapin. They were the parents of four children, the eldest son (3) Samuel, being our ancestor.

Third generation:

(3) Samuel Bliss (b. Nov. 7, 1647, d. June 19, 1749) at the age of 102 years. Married on June 2, 1672 to Sarah Stebens. They were the parents of nine children. The second son, (4) Nathaniel, is our ancestor.

Fourth generation:

(4) Nathaniel Bliss (b. Sept. 8, 1679, d. March 12, 1751) Married on Jan. 20, 1704 to Mary Morgan. Nine children were born to them, the sixth child and second son (5) Peletiah, being our ancestor.

Fifth generation:

(5) Peletiah Bliss (b. March 4, 1717, d. Oct. 24, 1789); Married on Dec. 1, 1748 to Jemima Hitchcock. Eleven children were born to them. Their fourth child and first son (6) Zadock is our ancestor.

Sixth generation.

(6) Zadock Bliss, Sr. (b. July 3, 1755, d. Dec. 7, 1813) Married May 4, 1786 to Sarah Cushman, daughter of Isaac and Thankful Cushman. Zadock Bliss, Sr. was a Revolutionary War soldier. (A complete account of his service record will be given elsewhere).

Zadock and Sarah (Cushman) Bliss were the parents of four children, as follows:

Zadock, Jr. (b. Feb. 26, 1788) is the progenitor of the Ohio Bliss family, and he is our common ancestor. The three remaining children were: Artemas (b. Oct. 13, 1790) resided in Bloomfield, Conn., and is said to have removed to Ohio about 1830. I could find no record of him.

Asahel (b. Jan. 3, 1793, d. June 25, 1833) in Mass. He was unmarried.

Sarah (b. Oct. 8, 1795, d. July 7, 1800)

This brief summary of the Bliss lineage is from the "New England Historical and Genealogical Register" by courtesy of the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

These ancestors all lived in Connecticut and Massachusetts.

241 ZADOC BLISS (b. Feb. 27, 1780, d. Jan. 8, 1861)

He was born in the town of Deersville, Adams County, Ohio. He was the son of Zadoc and Mary (Harris) Bliss. He was married to Mary (Harris) Bliss, daughter of Zadoc and Mary (Harris) Bliss, on Jan. 2, 1804. They had several children, including Zadoc, Mary, and others.

ZADOC BLISS, Pioneer

A-1. ZADOC BLISS (b. Feb. 26, 1788; d. July 8, 1853)

Born in Connecticut; died near Deersville, Harrison Co., Ohio. Married to Keziah Haskins. The time and place of this marriage could not be found, but it probably was in Connecticut. Keziah Haskins was born April 4, 1786, died May 31, 1851.

They are both buried at the Methodist Church Cemetery in Deersville, Ohio, near the east boundary of the cemetery. Each grave is marked with a large stone slab and both stones were in a fair state of preservation when I last saw them.

The history of the descendants of *Zadoc and Keziah *Haskins Bliss begins for us with their migration from Connecticut to Ohio.

We do not know how they made the long journey to Ohio - but they were pioneers - so we may assume they made the journey in wagons, bringing household goods and farm implements, and driving their live stock before them.

We do not know the exact date of their migration, but it was between the years of 1817 and 1822. They settled first in Columbiana County and my grandfather (Zebulon) was born there. They settled in Harrison County in 1824.

Harrison County was formed on Jan. 1, 1814, from parts of Jefferson and Tuscarawas Counties, and at the time Zadoc and Keziah settled there the population of the entire County was just over 14,000 persons.

Both Zadoc and Keziah Bliss received Patent deeds or United States land grants to land in Harrison County. For some unknown reason Keziah received her land grant before Zadoc. Records show that Keziah Bliss, Columbiana County, received a land grant to the N. E. Quarter of Section 31, Township 12, Range 6 signed by President James Monroe on Aug. 12, 1824.

Zadoc received a land grant to the West half of the S. E. quarter of Section 32, Township 12, Range 6, signed by President Andrew Jackson on May 4, 1831.

This land lies about half way between the Village of Deersville and Brownsville and is now known as the Ritzenhouse farm.

Deersville was platted by John Cramblett, Nov. 25, 1815, and became a thriving village.

•NOTE:

There is some variation in the spelling of Zadoc, also Keziah's maiden name. Early spelling of Zadoc is Zadock, and it is so inscribed in his will and on his tombstone. The letter "K" seems to have been dropped for everyday usage. I have found Keziah's maiden name spelled "Haskins" also "Hoskins." I do not know which is correct, but I think it is Haskins, and I shall use that form.

Brownsville was platted by Absolem Kent, Jr., Dec. 20, 1815, but has only two farmhouses and the Brownsville Christian (Disciples) Church. There never were more houses, to my knowledge.

Zadoc Bliss was a Whig in politics, and was a prominent Abolitionist. He and his wife were active members of the Christian (Disciples) Church. They had settled on land which was still wilderness and they cleared and improved it. The original log house is no longer standing; the present frame house was built by John Quincy Adams Bliss, who - after the death of their parents - purchased the shares belonging to the other heirs.

I am sure you will agree that Zadoc and Keziah were people of great courage, to bring small children through the sparsely settled regions beyond the Eastern Mountains to establish homes for themselves and for their children, in what was then considered the far West.

They passed their courage and self reliance on to their children. Some of the children of this couple continued to migrate, leaving the hills of Harrison County early in life, to better their conditions by going West. Ever Westward, they travelled, by wagons - later by train - until now their descendants are scattered throughout the West to California and even into Canada.

This pioneer couple must have been lovers of music. This love of music was also passed on to their children and their descendants. I have had "old timers" whom I interviewed in Harrison County tell me that they, or some member of their family, had attended "singing school" taught by John Quincy Adams Bliss. I have been told that James Monroe Bliss and George Washington Bliss were also singers, the latter having been a leader of singing in his Church. The Bliss family is still a musical family. A few are professional musicians, but most of them are just folks who love music.

Our forefathers were but average men and women. None of them were men of great wealth or prominence, but rather have been the kind of people who have been - and are - the backbone of America.

As you travel about the country, if you find yourself in the vicinity of any of these relatives, it is to be hoped that you will take time to call on them, or if you find yourself living near some hitherto unknown cousin, I hope you will find good friends among them.

I have tried to make this little book, not only a history of Blisses, past and present, but also a directory of present Blisses to the end that you may establish kinship with each other.

Some time after Keziah Bliss died on May 31, 1851, Zadoc Bliss remarried. I could find no record of this marriage. He was not married in Harrison County, and

I had the counties adjacent to Harrison searched, but found no record of this second marriage. However, in his will, dated August 26, 1852, and which is on record at Harrison County Court House, he willed land and other items to "my beloved wife Nancy", which proves that he did remarry, but I do not know when or where this marriage took place, or Nancy's maiden name.

His will is as follows:

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ZADOCK BLISS, DECEASED

The System of Numbering

As you start to read this book you will notice a letter and a number to the left of each name. The letter is to designate the generation, as for instance, Zadoc, the progenitor, is "A". All his ten children being of the second generation are given the letter "B". All persons of the third generation are given the letter "C" and so on down to the eighth and last generation which is "H". The numbers are each person's place in his immediate family. There are 1558 direct descendants of Zadock and Keziah Bliss listed in this book and 690 persons who have married into the family.

As of this date (1951) we have five persons living who belong to the third generation.

Three sons of Zebulon Haskins Bliss, viz. Elmer Bliss, Albert Bliss and Playford Bliss, also two sons of James Monroe Bliss, who are Albert Monroe Bliss and Alvin Bliss.

Several families have persons of the eighth generation.

Zadoc and Keziah Haskins Bliss were the parents of ten children, all of whom lived to maturity, married and raised families. A remarkable record for those days, when the mortality rate among children was so high.

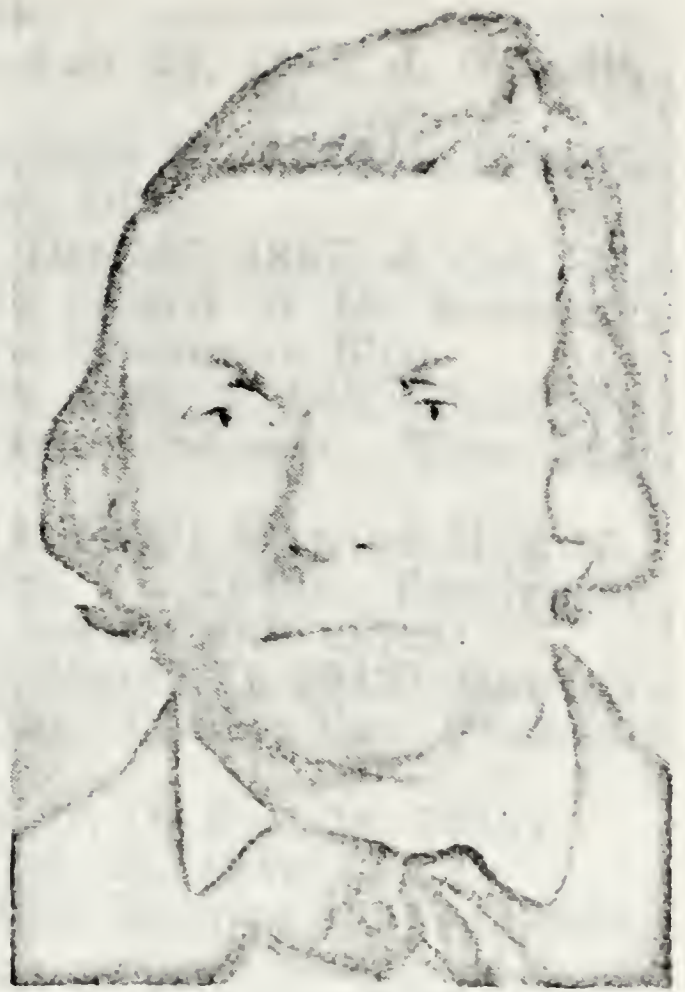

These children were as follows:

Ralph L., Sarah Cushman, Mary J., Emily, James Monroe, George Washington, Zebulon Haskins, John Quincy Adams, Keziah Louisa and Jane Elizabeth.

Ralph L. Bliss

B-1. RALPH L. BLISS - (b. Dec. 24, 1807, d. Oct. 24, 1863) Eldest child and first son of Zadoc and Keziah (Haskins) Bliss, was born in Connecticut; died in Pike Co., Ill., and is buried at Swiget Cemetery, near Baylis, Ill.

Married in Guernsey Co., Ohio, April 21, 1836, to Sarah Sherrow. (We could find no record of her birth or death).

It is on record at the Cadiz, Harrison Co., Ohio, Court House, that Ralph L. Bliss had purchased the land to which his father had received the patent deed, and I have been told that there was at one time a log cabin on that land, and the Ralph Bliss family lived there. He purchased this land on May 2, 1835, one year before his marriage to Sarah Sherrow, and sold it to George Washington Bliss on Jan. 9, 1843.

Ralph L. and Sarah Sherrow Bliss were the parents of four children: Zadoc; Eunice Rebecca; James Henry Harrison; and Keziah Louisa.

He was a public school teacher and also was one of the "musical Blisses" having a fine baritone voice, and he taught "singing schools". Married in Pike County, Ill. Sept. 19, 1867 to Ary F. James Henry Harrison Bliss and his wife resided on a farm near Camden, Ill. for several years, then moved in covered wagons to Vinton County, Ohio, where they lived for some years. From Vinton County, Ohio, they also joined the tide of Westward migration and moved to Lucas County, Iowa. While living in Vinton County James Henry Harrison Bliss was licensed as a local minister by the Methodist Conference, and later, in Iowa, was again licensed as a local Minister. A local Minister is affiliated with the Conference and must have had some training for the ministry but is not ordained.

Seven children were born to this union: Ettie May; Minnie E.; Abbie Jane; William Bingham; Lulu Daisy; Harvey Kelso; Lloyd Dennis.

Second daughter of Ralph L. and Sarah Sherrow Bliss, was born near Deersville, Harrison Co., Ohio. Married in Illinois on Oct. 5, 1866 to Nathan Fisk. Keziah and Nathan Fisk died in Nebraska and are buried at Cook, Nebraska. One son - died in infancy.

After the death of his first wife (We assume that Sarah Sherrow Bliss died, although we could find no record whatever of her death.) Ralph L. Bliss remarried, June 11, 1846, to Mary Irwin (b. Apr. 19, 1822, d. March 1, 1901)

Ohio, and moved to New Salem, Pike Co., Illinois, and remained there until his death. Five children were born to Ralph L. and Mary Irwin Bliss: Sarah E; Phoebe Ellen; Margaret Jane; Thompson; and Mary Martha.

Nov. 24, 1864, to George W. Fisk. He was a brother to Nathan Fisk, who married Keziah Louisa Bliss - half sister to Phoebe.

On Oct. 5, 1866, immediately after the marriage of Keziah Louisa Bliss and Nathan Fisk - these sisters, Keziah and Phoebe - with their husbands and Phoebe's little son, Charles, left Illinois in two covered wagons, to join the Westward migration, which was so rapidly settling what was then the Territory of Nebraska. They homesteaded - Keziah and Nathan Fisk near Cook, Nebraska; Phoebe and George Fisk near Tecumseh, Nebraska. Their first homes were "soddies" built by cutting squares of heavy sod and placing them, layer upon layer, much as concrete block walls are built. They were roofed by placing layers of sods over a framework of poles. One description, which I read, of these "soddies" said that ordinarily they were very bleak in appearance, but when the warm spring rains came, the dormant seeds and roots would spring to life and the "soddies" would be very gay, covered with green grass and prairie wild flowers.

The "Tecumseh Chieftain" in its obituary of Phoebe, published at the time of her death, has this to say of the courage of these pioneer women: "With the spirit of true builders, they withstood many hardships and during the past seventy years Mrs. Fisk had watched many changes take place in our great state of Nebraska, which she herself had helped to build." Lumber had to be hauled many miles from Nebraska City for their first real homes.

Sylvester Tipton husband of

Mary Bliss Tipton

B-3 MARY J. BLISS (b. May 29, 1812; d. Oct. 25, 1853) Third child and second daughter of Zadoc and Keziah (Haskins) Bliss, was born near Hartford, Conn., died in Coshocton Co., Ohio. Married at Deersville, Harrison Co., Ohio, on June 29, 1830, by Thomas McCleary, Methodist Minister to Sylvester Tipton, Jr. (b. Jan. 3, 1807; d. Feb. 23, 1879) son of Sylvester and Eve (Boren) Tipton. Sylvester Tipton, Jr. died in Indiana and is buried at the Sink Cemetery near Coal City. On Sept. 20, 1823 Sylvester Tipton (probably Sylvester Tipton, Sr.) had received a patent deed or land grant to the East half of the S. E. Quarter of Section 18, Township 10, Range 4, which would be eighty acres located in Green township, Harrison Co., Ohio. This land grant was signed by President James Monroe. It was on this farm that Mary J. (Bliss) and Sylvester Tipton made their home until April 8, 1833, when Cadiz Court records reveal that it was sold to William Beatty for the sum of Five hundred dollars.

Records at the Coshocton Co. Court House show that on Apr. 21, 1833, they purchased eighty acres of land in Millcreek township, Coshocton County, Ohio, so evidently they moved to Coshocton Co. in 1833.

My husband and I searched several old cemeteries before we located the grave of Mary Bliss Tipton. She is buried in the Shepler Evangelical United Brethren Church Cemetery near Mound, Coshocton Co., O. There were five white marble slabs in a row, three small slabs were for children who had died while very young, and these stones were in a good state of preservation, after having been there over one hundred years.

Mary's father-in-law was buried beside her grave, and the inscription on his tombstone reads thus: "Sylvester Tipton, son of Jonathan Tipton, died May 12, 1845, aged 83 years, 1 mo., 5 days." His stone is also in good condition, but Mary's is very badly weathered, in fact, it was almost illegible.

D-3 Della Pearl Burns, second daughter of Rozena Amanda (Tipton) and her second husband James Burns, was born at Ruskin, Nuckolls County, Nebr., and died at 14 years of age.

The following brief account is in no way connected with the Bliss family. It was sent to me and I am including it, as it will be of interest to the Tiptons.

After Mary (Bliss) Tipton died, Sylvester remarried in Coshocton Co., Ohio, on Feb. 23, 1854, to Mary Ellen VanHorn. They moved to Indiana very soon afterward as they were living in Owen Co., Ind. in July, 1854.

Six children were born to the second marriage. Min-

Emily Bliss Munson

B-4 EMILY BLISS - (b. Jan. 6, 1815; d. Nov. 2, 1907), fourth child and third daughter of Zadoc and Keziah (Haskins) Bliss, child and third daughter of Zadoc and Keziah (Haskins) Bliss, was born near Hartford, Conn.; died at Austin, Texas, buried in Oakwood Cemetery at Austin.

Married at Deersville, Harrison Co., Ohio, by Robert Pittis, J. P., Jan. 5, 1832, to George Munson, M. D. Dr. Munson was born Sept. 29, 1808, at Zanesville, Ohio; died Feb. 2, 1875, at Farragut, Fremont Co., Iowa.

We do not know why Dr. Munson came to Deersville. I do not think he came there to practice medicine; rather, I am of the opinion he came there to study medicine under Doctors who were established in practice at Deersville.

The medical histories of early doctors in Ohio, Indiana or Iowa have no record of him. My record of this family is very incomplete. They apparently left Deersville soon after they were married. Harrison Co. Court records at Cadiz show that on May 3, 1833, they sold property in Deersville and at that time they were living in the town of Adams, Washington Co., Ohio. From Ohio they moved to Charlestown, Clark Co., Indiana, and there are records to show they were living in Indiana in 1836, and continued to live there until 1847.

In 1850 the census records for Iowa show that Dr. George Munson, Emily (Bliss) Munson and eight children were living in New London Township, Henry Co., Iowa. In 1870 they were living in Oskaloosa, Mahaska Co., Iowa. In 1875 they were living in or near Farragut, Fremont Co., Iowa. This information has been gleaned from the various court houses and from the Iowa State Department of History and Archives.

It is regrettable that so little is known of Emily Bliss Munson's life, with its hardships, joys and sorrows. And we may be sure she endured many hardships and had sorrows a-plenty.

She outlived all of her brothers and sisters, her husband and all of her children, with the exception of two — Mary and Marilla. Her lifetime spanned the years from the second term as President of James Madison, to the second term of Theodore Roosevelt.

She had travelled from Connecticut to Texas, pioneering in covered wagons with her parents, then starting out again in covered wagons to pioneer in the West with her husband, going from state to state, wherever there was a settlement in need of a doctor, or where the prospects looked favorable for bettering their condition.

Mrs. George Munson Loughridge told me that Emily (Bliss) and Dr. George Munson were the parents of twelve children. I found authentic record of eleven children, so apparently the twelfth child had died in infancy. She had one child born in Ohio, seven were born in Indiana and three in Iowa.

Emily Bliss Munson returned to Ohio just once, to visit her brothers and sisters. After her husband's death, her grandson, George Munson Loughridge made the trip to Ohio with her. The exact year of her visit is unknown, but it was before her sister Sarah Bliss Lukens died, which was in 1886.

It took me a long time to locate the family of Emily Bliss Munson. Perhaps you would be interested in knowing just how I finally succeeded in contacting this family. I hadn't known that Zadoc and Keziah Bliss had a daughter Emily, until I found the record at the Cadiz, Ohio, Court House, where she had signed a deed relinquishing her share of her Mother's estate to John Q. A. Bliss. After exhausting every means of locating her we made a trip to Harrison Co., in search of clues, and talked to Freeman Cecil, a nephew of Emily Bliss Munson. He remembered that Emily Munson had visited in Ohio, and a grandson had brought her.

At the time I talked to Freeman Cecil, more than fifty years had elapsed since her visit, and he could not recall the name of the grandson who accompanied her, or where they were from. Later, I wrote to Freeman and at that time he was able to recall, not the exact name of the grandson, but a name very similar, and he also had remembered that the grandson had been a Conductor on a Railroad. That gave me a tangible clue, so I called the local Division of the Order of Railway Conductors. They referred me to the Grand Lodge at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. I sent that meager bit of information to the Grand Lodge, and they very graciously searched their files and were able to send me the names of two men, with names similar to the name sent to me by Freeman Cecil. One of them proved to be the grandson, George Munson Loughridge, who had brought Emily to visit in Ohio.

Mrs. George Munson Loughridge told me that when she married into the Munson family in 1888, Emily's children were all dead except the two mentioned above, Mary and Marilla.

The following names and dates were supplied by the Iowa State Department of History and Archives, and are compiled from census records for the years 1850, 1856, 1860 and 1870 for the State of Iowa.

James Monroe Bliss

B-5 JAMES MONROE BLISS - (b. Feb. 17, 1817; d. Aug. 21, 1881) Fifth child and second son of Zadoc and Keziah (Haskins) Bliss, was born near Hartford, Conn.; died in Carroll Co., Mo., and is buried at Arkadelphia Christian Church Cemetery, south of Avalon, Mo.

Married in Guernsey Co., Ohio, on Feb. 4, 1841, to Eliza S. Mitchell (b. May 2, 1815; d. Nov. 20, 1869). She died in Carroll Co., Mo.

James Monroe and Eliza (Mitchell) Bliss lived in Guernsey Co., Ohio, until March 27, 1848, when they purchased a tract of land in Oxford Township, Coshocton Co., Ohio, where they lived until March 21, 1851, when that farm was sold.

There is a period of time after they sold their farm in Coshocton County that I could not ascertain their place of residence, but I think they lived in Ohio for a few years.

Then, evidence would seem to indicate that they moved to Missouri some time in the 1860's, with Eliza (Mitchell) Bliss' brother George Mitchell and a sister Harriett Mitchell, who had married a Jones. James Monroe Bliss married three times, and seems to have made several trips back and forth between Missouri and Ohio.

James Monroe and Eliza (Mitchell) Bliss were the parents of three children; Martha K., Emily Harriett and George R.

C-1 Martha K. Bliss (b. July 9, 1842) first daughter of James Monroe and Eliza S. (Mitchell) Bliss, was born in Guernsey Co., Ohio. I was not able to locate descendants of Martha K. Bliss. She was last heard from in 1898 and at that time was living in or near Altoona, Pa. I have made every effort to trace her descendants but without success. The following incomplete record was sent to me by Mrs. Juanita Reigle, a niece of Martha K. Bliss. Martha K. Bliss had married Jerome Adams, in Ohio. One daughter was born to them:

D-1 Alberta Adams — who married a Mr. Brown and they had two children:

E-1 Jennie Brown.

E-2 Harry Brown.

Evidently Jerome Adams died, or there may have been a divorce, for Martha K. Bliss remarried to William Garner. They were married in Missouri, but William Garner was from Pennsylvania, and they moved to Pennsylvania. There were two children born to the second marriage:

D-1 William Garner, Jr.,

D-2 Martha Garner.

C-2 Emily Harriett Bliss (b. July 14, 1844; d. Jan. 23, 1924) second daughter of James Monroe and Eliza S. (Mitchell) Bliss, was born in Guernsey Co., Ohio; died at Long Beach, Calif., interred in Angeles Abby Mausoleum, Compton, Calif.
